Conor Walsh

Call: 2025

Overview

Conor joined Hailsham Chambers as a tenant in September 2026 upon successful completion of his pupillage under the supervision of Richard Anderton, Alice Nash and David Juckes. He accepts instructions across all of Chambers' practice areas.

During pupillage, Conor gained experience across a range of areas, including professional negligence, clinical negligence and costs. He drafted various pieces of work, including particulars of claim, defences, advices, skeleton arguments, expert agendas, schedules of loss and counter-schedules of loss. Conor has acted for both claimants and defendants in Small Claims Track matters in the County Court, including acting in an architects' negligence claim.

Alongside his pupillage, Conor worked with Amicus ALJ and Evolve FILA on US and Ugandan death penalty cases and continues to do so. He has drafted Supreme Court submissions for a death penalty appeal in the Ugandan Supreme Court. Additionally, Conor is an adjudicator for CISAS, run by CEDR.
