

Conor Walsh

Overview

Conor commenced pupillage at Hailsham Chambers in September 2025 and is currently under the supervision of Alice Nash. His first supervisor was Richard Anderton.

Conor has drafted various pieces of work in the fields of both professional liability and clinical negligence, including particulars of claim, defences, counter-schedules of loss, skeleton arguments and advices. He has also attended two High Court trials, hearings, and conferences with clients and experts.

Conor obtained a first-class law degree from King's College London and a Distinction on the Bar Course at City St George's University of London.

Further Information

ICO Data protection registration number: ZC095968.

Conor Walsh is a barrister regulated by the Bar Standards Board. Click here to view Conor Walsh's Privacy Notice.