

Harry Botterill

Overview

Harry commenced pupillage at Hailsham Chambers in September 2026 and is currently under the supervision of Richard Anderton.

Harry obtained a first-class law degree from the University of Durham, as well as Distinctions on the BCL master's course at the University of Oxford and on the Bar Course at City St George's University of London. He has also published an article examining the cross-border rights of patients in the EU.