

Lewis Dunsmure

Call: 2021

Overview

Lewis is currently undertaking Pupillage under the supervision of David Jukes, previously under Henry Bankes-Jones.

Lewis is working across all Chambers' practice areas, including those of medical law, professional liability, costs, and commercial disputes.

Prior to pupillage, Lewis worked as a court clerk at Newcastle County Court, assisting Civil and Family judges at County Court and High Court level.

During his studies, he volunteered at Adviceline as a telephone adviser and Rethink Mental Illness as a Relevant Person's Representative on behalf of individuals lacking mental capacity.

Lewis represented the Middle Temple in the Willem C. Vis International Arbitration Moot 2021.

Education

Durham University, Law LLB: Graduated in 2020 with 1st Class Honours.

Northumbria University Bar Course LLM: Graduated in 2021 with a Distinction.

Scholarships and Awards

- The Trinity Chambers Prize for the best performance on the Bar Professional Training Course for 2021, Northumbria University.

- Enterprise Prize for Opinion Writing 2021, Northumbria University
 - Robert Garraway Rice Scholarship, Middle Temple (September 2020).
 - Vice-Chancellor's Scholarship, Northumbria University (September 2020).
 - Letter of Commendation for first year results, Durham University (August 2018).
-

Further Information

ICO Data protection registration number: ZB527462

Lewis Dunsmure is a barrister regulated by the Bar Standards Board. Click here to view Lewis Dunsmure' Privacy Notice.